

Unscramble the words

SONSKSO _____ OYLPTRAHY _____

ALPAEC _____ VICLIZITOANI _____

CSOREEFS _____ TREEC _____

Match the key word to its definition

Thalassocratic - A non-violent ritual where men and women jumped over a bull by grabbing its horns.

Bull-leaping - Monumental gateway in the ancient Greek architecture

Fresco - Relating to maritime realms/kingdoms

Propylaea - Wall painting where the paint had to be applied on the damp plaster directly in order to become permanent once it dried.

Polythyra - A set of many doors placed next to each other whilst being aesthetically appealing.

True or False statements

1. Minoan palaces were built with stone, wood and copper.

2. The most famous Minoan palaces were Knossos, Malia, Phaistos and Zakros.

3. Bull-leaping was a violent sport which Minoans took part in.

4. Minoan palaces had a round central court.

5. Paint had to be placed on damp plaster in order to create frescoes on the palace walls.

What was the most interesting thing you learned about today?
