

Tell the following story with noises and sounds without using any words. Use your vocal organs.

STORY-PLOT

We are in a Formula 1 race. The racing cars start their engines. The starting signal starts and the race begins. There are bends, sometimes the race cars have to brake and then they accelerate again. Suddenly a car slips and bounces against a pole. There is a tremendous impact. Silence. _____

The ambulance car arrives with siren.

-Decide together who is going to do which part.

-Decide together who is going to be the leader/conductor of the story.