

Tell the following story with noises and sounds without using any words. Use your vocal organs.

STORY-PLOT

It's a stormy night. The wind blows and whistles through the trees. Slowly it starts to rain, first only a few drops and then more and more drops fall down.

It starts to thunder from afar, then the storm comes closer. Then a lightning strikes a tree and with a loud crash a branch breaks off.

-Decide together who is going to do which part.

-Decide together who is going to be the leader/conductor of the story.