Invitation to continue at home, maybe with your family, to “play “ with the sound of your first name(s), in the next lesson it will be shared in class.

We all have a first name given to us by our parents that accompanies us for a lifetime. But our name is also a WORD made from different SOUNDS. Lets play with the sound of our first names. Try to say it in different ways, using your imagination. Have fun!

Here some possibilities:

- as if it were a very light feather that descends slowly
- as if it were water boiling in a pot
- as if it were walking on the street
- as if it were walking and, at a certain point, slipping on a banana peel
- as if it entered a funnel from the narrowest part and emerged from the widest part
- as if it entered a funnel from the widest part and came out of the narrowest one
- as if it were a faucet that drips very slowly
- as if it were going on the swing
- as if it were a person who has the hiccups
- as if it were a person who sneezes
- as if it were a person who yawns
- as if it fell from the tenth floor
- as if it were a balloon that is inflating
- as if it were a balloon that inflates and then bursts
