

CLIL Lesson:

Developer: Cristina Nanu

Timing: 50 min

Age of students: 11-12 years

Context and Prior Knowledge: Birds

Lesson Steps

1. 5' Introduction	Lead in and Connection to previous learning: Revising the topic about reptiles. Ss are asked to answer a question from which answer they will identify that reptiles are the ancestors of birds Worksheet 1
2. 5' Problem solving	Launching a problem to be solved. Worksheet 2 T show Ss 10 pictures of different birds and Ss are asked to group them according to similar features.
3. 30'	Worksheet 3 - Ss will draw their own bird starting from 2 circles. Worksheet 4 - Ss will identify on the drawing the adaptations for respiration and to flight of birds Worksheet 5 - Ss will identify few adaptations to reproduction of bird by comparing the eggs of reptiles with the egg of a bird. Worksheet 6 - Ss are provided with different pictures, and will have to match the females with their corresponding males.
4. 5' Assessment	Worksheet 7 – Ss will answer the questions and discuss about birds behaviours to seasonal changes, like migration.
5. 5' Feed back	Ss will work out an atypical project about what they have learned about birds. Poems, riddles, dialog, short stories, etc., feel free to improvise. Ss will evaluate the other colleagues' projects by giving coloured post its. Happy-pink, ok-red, sad- blue.

